The "Hallowed" Week Ahead

Zacchaeus Sunday

I always imagine the actor Danny DeVito when I think of Zacchaeus whom we meet up in a tree, rushing to Jesus, converting, and welcoming Jesus into his home. A tough nut, worldly-wise, short collaborator with the Roman overlords ... and a Saint of the Church! Saint Zacchaeus! Patron saint of "moral urgency" – of allowing Jesus to change our lives today. Jesus came into Zacchaeus' house and he was completely changed. The Eucharistic Lord comes into our bodies and souls today and we must be changed. Pope Benedict teaches, "The moral urgency born of welcoming Jesus into our lives is the fruit of gratitude for having experienced the Lord's unmerited closeness."

Monday

Well Jesus comes knocking in a strange way: children dressed up for treats. Sure, some of the costumes will be shaped by the culture ... but we know how they are truly clothed in God's eyes. So, besides stuffing their pillowcases with things bad for their teeth, how about praying a Hail Mary for every batch as they leave our doorsteps?

All Saints, Tuesday (High Mass at 12:10)

This is what Halloween is all about: All Saints Day! Our God has surrounded each of our journeys looking to fill our pillowcases with love to share with others with a Great Cloud of Witnesses. Ten new Saints this year: Titus Brandsma, Devasahayam Pillai, César de Bus, Luigi Maria Palazzolo, Giustino Russolillo, Charles de Foucauld, Anne-Marie Rivier, Maria Francesca Rubatto, Carolina Santocanale, Maria Domenica Mantovani, Giovanni Battista Scialabini, and Artémides Zatti. There also were twenty-six beatifications including Blessed Pope John Paul I and martyrs for the faith from El Salvador, Eastern Europe and Spain. Why not use the internet for something worthwhile and find information on these great heroes of the faith who cheer us to "run with perseverance the race that is set before us".

All Souls, Wednesday (Masses at 8 am, and 12:10 and 7:30 p.m.)

I love this line from St. Ambrose's prayer before Mass: "O loving God, O awesome Majesty ... while I do not look forward to having you as Judge, I long to have you as Savior". The race has been run by our beloved departed – and so they meet the Face of Christ, Judge and Saviour. We become an earthly chorus of advocates for them – we sinners made saints by God's love – and we pray for these departed ones, as they are cleansed by the burning Love of God.

November is the Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory - This is a beautiful time to write the names of our departed in the Book of Remembrance, to pray the Rosary which brings great indulgence to the Holy Souls, to arrange for Masses to be said for our beloved departed
