3rd Sunday
of Lent
March 12, 2023

The woman at the well is each of us.

We meet Christ Jesus who invites us into a relationship with him.

New water springs up in our souls as we speak with him.

There is a new way to worship God – in Jesus we worship in spirit and truth.

He tells us everything that we have done but with the new light: forgiveness and mercy is ours.

And we run to tell our friends and neighbours the good news.

That is what St. Paul's parish community is at its core:

the people who have become the Church

the people who worship in spirit and truth

the people who rush to tell and live the good news

The midday of Lent is here: we are at the well.

How are we living worship and service and proclamation?

The renovation of our sanctuary is a time for the renovation of our community.

Next Sunday, as we celebrate Lætare Sunday – Rejoice Sunday - our pastor will lead us in a reflection of how we can deepen our life in this community that is God's gift to us.

A Lenten Novena – Mission – Retreat

Did you know that the Church of Canada has our own “Little Flower”? Her name is Blessed Dina Bélanger, Sr. Marie of Saint Cecilia of Rome R.J.M. This gifted woman (she studied at Julliard and became a concert pianist) entered the Congregation of the Religious of Jesus and Mary at the age of 24. After caring for one of her students who had scarlet fever she contracted the disease which soon led to tuberculosis, the same disease which took St. Thérèse of Lisieux. She died amidst great suffering but of heroic witness in 1929 at the age of 34. Like St. Thérèse she was asked by her superior to write a biography. This young mystic received a vision of Jesus who told her, “You will do good by your writings”. Indeed, this is so, praise God.

Join Fr. Penna for brief daily meditations on the writings of this great daughter of the Church of Canada for the nine days leading up to the great Solemnity of the Annunciation. Every day from March 16 – 24 after the 12:10 Mass (on Sunday at 11:15) the 15-minute reflection and prayer will take place. As well, Fr. Penna will be posting sessions to YouTube daily. Blessed Dina particular insight into the Eucharist is a gift for us. Come a spend some special time with her Beloved, Jesus Christ.
