Easter Sunday March 31, 2024

Christ is Risen, Alleluia! He is Risen indeed, Alleluia!

So, the Christian shout sounds again.

In hearts—In mind—In bodies— In families

Risen! REALLY RISEN!

Death which makes us small

Death which makes us cynical and hard

Death which makes us fearful and violent

This death no longer the measure of our lives

For those who know the Good news of Jesus

Who are baptized and sealed in His Body

Who are forgiven and Saved by Him

Resurrection is the measure of our bodies, our souls, our lives!

Our minds are stretched to see all in the Light of Eternity.

Our bodies are transformed because they are won for Glorification

Our souls are Happy with a Wild Joy

For the greatness for which we were created

The Greatness of being made GODLY in GOD

Is no mere comforting idea

It is the Risen One

It is the Greatness of Jesus Christ

Whose Face – Risen – shines with utter love on us.

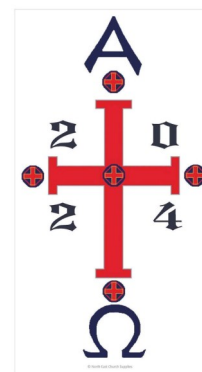

And lifts our eyes, our minds, our hearts, our bodies

To the very heart of the Holy Trinity

To see our destiny at hand

Risen, Reigning, Rejoicing

Forever and Ever. AMEN
